Action Taken Report 2023-24

The university views the teacher as the most crucial component of education, and IQAC regularly gathers input on teachers from a range of stakeholders. Feedback on college conduct from teachers, parents, students, and alumni. Following analysis of the gathered input, the report is delivered to the principal's office. An expert team led by the Honourable Principal, the IQAC Coordinator, and esteemed IQAC members created the feedback forms specifically. One item on the feedback form is qualitative in nature and asks for open comments from the stakeholders. Other elements include statements that are scored on a 4-point rating scale (1-Very Good, 2-Good, 3-Fair, 4-Satisfying). The assessment panel takes into account the opinions of all students. If they Find drawbacks in teaching, try to make improvement in that.
